PEPSIN is the chief element, or forat Nigesting Principle of the Gastric Juice—the Solvent of the Pool, the Purifying, Preserving & Stimulating Agent of the Stomach and Intestines. It is extracted from the Digestive Stomach of the Ox, thus forming an Artificial Digestive Fuld precisely like the natural Gastric Juice in its Chamilat process and furnishings. Canalete and precisely like the natural Gastrie Juice in its Chemical powers, and biraishing a Completeaud Perfect Substitute for it. By the aid of this preparation the pains and evils of Indigestion and Dyspepsia are removed, just as they would be by a healthy stomach. It is doing wonders for Dyspepties, curing cases of Debliny, Emaciation, Nervous Decline and Dyspeptic Consumption, supposed to be on the verge of tile grave. The scientific evidence upon which it is based a in the highest degree curious and remarkable.

Baron Liebig in his celekrated work on Animal Chemistry says: 'An Artificial Digestive Eluid, analogous to the Gastrie Julee, may be readily prepared from the mucous membrane of the stomach of the Calf, in which various articles of food, as meat and eggs, will be softened, changed abd digested, just in the same-manner as they would be in the human stomach.'

Dr. Combe, in his valuable writings on the Physiology of Digestion, observes that 'a diminution of the due quantity of the Gastrie Julee is a prominent and all-prevailing cause of Dyspepsia;' and he states that a distinguished professor of medicine in London, who was severely afflicted with this complaint, finding every thing cles to fail, had recourse to the Gastric Juice obtained from the stomachs of living animals, which proved completely successful.

Professor Dunglison, of the defierson College, Philadelphia, in his great work on Human Physiology, devotes more than fifty pages to an examination of this subject. His experiments with Dr. Beaumont, on the Gastric Juice obtained from the living human stomach and from animals, are well known. In all cases, he says digestion occurred of perfectly in the artificial as in the natural digestions.

As A DYSPEPSIA CURER,
Dr. Houghton's Pepsia has produced the most marvellous effects in curing cases of Doblity, Emaciation, Nervous Decline and Dyspeptic Consumption It is impossible to give the details of cases in the limits of this adversement; but authenticated certificates have been given of more than two hundred remarkable cures, in Philadelphia, New York and Beston alore, the cures were not only rapid and wonderful, but permanent.

It is a great Nervous Attidote, and particularly useful for tendency to Billious disorder, Ever and Ague, and the evil effects of Quinine, moreous and other drugs upon the digastive organs, after a long sickness; also for excess in eating and the too free use of ardent spirits. It almost reconciles health with intemperance.
